

REBELS UNDER NATARA ATTACK ZACATECAS

FEDERALS SLOWLY BEING DRIVEN BACK BY RIFLE FIRE

Railroad Communication Between Mexico City and Vera Cruz Is Menaced by Constitutionalists—Object of Carranza's Troops Is to Cut Off All Means of Retreat For Huerta.

SALTILLO, Mexico, June 10.—Constitutionalists under General Panfilo Natera began an assault upon Zacatecas early today and according to reports reaching General Carranza here tonight the federal forces slowly were being driven back by the combined rifle and artillery fire.

It was stated that General Natera had learned that the federal forces under General Medina Barron were about to evacuate Zacatecas with a large quantity of ammunition and that the constitutionalists hurried their assault hoping to capture the supplies. Reports indicate that ten thousand men were in the assaulting force and that they previously had cut the remaining railroad communications to the south. Constitutionalists here declared that to escape from Zacatecas and make their way south the federal army, whose numbers are not given, would have to cut its way through the cavalry brigade under General Domingo Arrieta, which had reached the vicinity of Zacatecas from Durango.

Menace Vera Cruz Railroad.

Washington, June 10.—Railroad communication between Mexico City and Vera Cruz is menaced by constitutionalist forces, Brig. Gen. Funston reported today to the war department. From sources in touch with the constitutionalist agency here it was learned that the object of Carranza's troops in Vera Cruz state is to cut off if possible all means of retreat for Huerta and his cabinet in case they determine to quit the capital. One battle between the federal and the constitutionalist forces has already been fought in this district according to despatches which resulted in the rout of the Huerta troops. The constitutionalist forces in Vera Cruz state, numbering 3,000 are said to be disposed so that they might be able to cut, not only the railroad between Mexico and Vera Cruz, but also the line between the capital and Puerto Mexico. The forces are under command of General Aguilar and his chief of staff is Col. Manuel Perez Romero, a brother-in-law of the late President Madero.

Interruption of communication between the capital and the eastern seaboard has been in contemplation by the constitutionalists for the last six months it was said tonight. It has been understood here that the South American mediators are prepared to make an appeal for Huerta's personal safety in the event his government collapses before the conclusion of the Niagara conference.

Administration officials were not greatly alarmed over threats to cut communication between Mexico City and the gulf ports, because virtually all Americans who wanted to leave the capital and nearby interior points reached safety some time ago. General Funston also reported that rumors of a contemplated federal attack on Vera Cruz persisted to the point where they could not be entirely ignored. War department officials, however, were not inclined seriously to regard the rumors. General Funston was unable to say how many federals remained in the territory between the capital and the gulf.

Relief for some of the battleships at Vera Cruz was announced at the navy department, a division consisting of the New Hampshire, Michigan, Nebraska and Utah will start north next week for home ports and their places will be taken by the Delaware, Rhode Island and Kansas in due course. This is the first important change in the composition of the naval force in Mexican waters since the crisis developed. The western report of Vice-Consul Silliman covering his treatment by the federal commander at Saltillo, the forced entry into the safe of the American consulate there and the confiscation of the copy of the state department code was filed during the day. Mr. Bryan announced that it would not be made public.

The Duchess of New York state followed in their quaint garb and the Louisiana French appeared with powdered hair and Paniers. The group representative of the signatories of the treaty of Ghent appeared in the sober small clothes of the Georgian period. The English procession was more modern but by the use of the insignia of the rose and oak proved distinctive. Scotland was represented by women wearing white dresses; the men wore the kilt.

The Irish section featured the harp and the shamrock. Wales displayed two costumes, that of ancient Wales and the costume of the primitives Druids.

Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Columbia and the United States were represented in various costumes.

The boys left home Monday morning, going to the creek to bathe with several companions. They were drowned, but no report was made by the other children, all of whom had gone bathing without the consent of their parents. Late Tuesday evening a sister of young Cogan was told by one of the boys that her brother had been drowned. Efforts to find the bodies during the night were fruitless. Today they were seen floating in the creek and removed to an undertaking establishment.

HEAT WAVE SPREADS FROM THE MIDDLEWEST TO ATLANTIC COAST

CHICAGO, June 10.—After killing scores, prostrating hundreds and driving many to suicide, the heat wave that has gripped the middle west for the past four days spread to the Atlantic coast today. In Chicago a light north breeze brought relief, but too late for many sufferers, as twelve additional deaths were reported to the police. In a few places in the central west temporarily were relieved by cooling lake breezes or thundershowers. Generally throughout the interior conditions today were as bad as on the three days preceding, with temperatures ranging from 90 to 98.

The Washington weather bureau reported small chance for relief tonight.

EXPECT END OF LONG TOLLS BATTLE TODAY

SENATE CLEARS AWAY MOST OF LEGISLATIVE BARRIERS AT NIGHT

Votes Taken On Amendments Designed to Preserve Rights of United States Indicate Victory for Repeal Forces by a Substantial Majority.

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.

Met at 11 a. m. Debate was resumed on the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption with the prospect of a final vote before adjournment tonight.

Adopted Simmons—Norris amendment to canal tolls bill. Defeated amendments proposed by Senators Sutherland and Cummins.

Recessed at 10:20 p. m., to 11 a. m., Thursday.

House.

The rules committee favorably reported arrangements for consideration of the five administration bills at this session.

Further committee hearings were decided upon before the rules committee votes on the Hobson resolution for a prohibition amendment.

Consideration of the judicial code revision bill was resumed on the floor.

Adjourned at 5:05 p. m., to noon Thursday.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The senate tonight cleared away most of the legislative barriers in the way of a final vote on the canal tolls exemption repeal bill and unless there are unforeseen developments the long battle will end before adjournment tomorrow.

Votes taken tonight on amendments designed to preserve any right the United States possesses under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain to exempt American ships from toll payment through the Panama canal indicated that the forces of repeal will win by a substantial majority. Senator Simmons, who has led the fight for repeal, has estimated that the bill will carry by not less than ten votes and there is every promise that his estimate will prove correct. There was no real test of strength in the voting tonight, but the repeal forces won the first round of the fight when they put through, by a vote of 50 to 24, the so-called Simmons-Norris amendment, which declares that the United States does not waive or relinquish any right it may have to exempt American ships from payment of tolls through the Panama canal. The vote was the first test after six weeks of debate on the bill. Even the most optimistic senators who favored repeal had not expected the amendment to carry by so large a majority.

Nine democratic senators, Ashurst, Martine, O'Gorman, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Shields, Walsh and Williams, voted against the amendment. Several of these, however, are expected to vote for the repeal bill, while several republicans who supported the resolution are expected to line up against the bill. The Simmons-Norris amendment would provide that the passage of the repeal shall not be construed or held as a waiver or relinquishment of any rights the United States may have under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain.

Two attempts to change the language of the amendment so that it would refer to a right the United States has instead of any rights it may have, were defeated with ease, but neither vote was so decisive as that on the Simmons amendment. On amending any amendment by Senator Sutherland was beaten 49 to 33, and the second proposed by Senator Cummins suffered a like fate by a vote of 49 to 37.

Of the fifty senators who voted for the Simmons amendment, 36 were democrats and 13 were republicans, and the other vote was cast by Senator Poindexter, progressive. Nine democrats and fifteen republicans voted against the amendment. In the votes on the two substitutes offered there were several changes, but the alignment of democrats remained about the same as on the first vote. Attempts will be made tomorrow to put through other amendments regarding American rights as to toll exemption and American sovereignty over the canal, but the repeal forces are believed to be sufficiently strong to dispose of them in short order and pave the way for the passage of the bill itself. There were several expressions during the debate today of a desire to submit the dispute with Great Britain to arbitration after the repeal is passed. It has been currently reported in the senate for several days that an arbitration resolution will be pressed after the passage of the bill.

Senator Sutherland's arbitration amendment already has received the approval of the foreign relations committee and Senator Norris is expected to renew his proposal of the same sort made several weeks ago. A serious attempt to put through an arbitration resolution, however, may be opposed by democratic leaders who are anxious to take up pending anti-trust legislation as soon as possible.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT AND MISS WILLARD ARE MARRIED IN SPAIN

Civil Ceremony Takes Place in Office of Chief of Police—Religious Ceremony to Be Performed Today.

Madrid, Spain, June 10.—Kermit Roosevelt, son of the former president, and Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of the American ambassador to Spain, were married by civil ceremony here today. The ceremony was at the office of the chief of police.

King Alfonso's present to the bride was a rare old fan, while the infant was given a pendant of brilliants. Moving picture men were out in force for the ceremony and a small crowd around the police headquarters was kept from approaching too closely by police and detectives.

The formal witnesses appointed for the civil ceremony were the Duke of Alba, Senor Osmar Schuler. The witnesses at the religious ceremony tomorrow will be Colonel Roosevelt and Ambassador Willard.

Ambassador Willard gave a dinner at the American embassy tonight the guests including Infant Alfonso of Orleans and his wife, Princess Beatrice of Saxe Coburg, the Duke of Alba, Premier Dato, the minister of foreign affairs, Marquis de Lema, the members of the diplomatic corps and many prominent government officials.

SYLVIA PANKHURST'S PROCESSION PROVES A FIASCO; LEADER ARRESTED

Strong Condemnation of Militancy by Women's Liberal Federation Is Considered Indicative of Waning of "The Cause."

London, June 10.—Sylvia Pankhurst boasted that her east end army would fight for her protection has proved to be without avail.

The procession which she organized tonight to march on Premier Asquith at Westminster turned out to be a fiasco and the leader of the militants is again in Holloway jail.

Strong condemnation of militancy by the women's liberal federation today is considered indicative of the waning of "the cause."

Home Secretary McKenna had an audience with the king at Buckingham Palace tonight with the object, it is generally believed of acquainting the king with the measures the government is taking to defeat the militant agitation. No serious outrages in London were reported tonight, but at the centenary hall at Albert Hall tonight one woman who attempted to interfere with a pageant, was ejected. Serious disorders, however, occurred at Portsmouth where traveling parties of suffragettes in an attempt to hold meetings met with such hostility from the populace that they had to be protected by the police. Their platforms were overturned and they themselves were chased a considerable distance by a mob who threw all sorts of missiles at them.

WORTHINGTON TESTIFIES UNDER THREAT OF CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS

CHICAGO, June 10.—John W. Worthington, president of the American Banking association under threat of proceedings for contempt of court answered questions before Sidney C. Eastman, referee in bankruptcy today. He declared he had signed his wife's name to a trust deed of the association by which she became a trustee of the association. His wife later had refused to ratify the signature. Creditors of the association had hoped this deed would permit them to hold Mrs. Worthington's property worth $150,000.

Worthington testified he had issued $35,700 in certificates of deposit of the association to his brother-in-law John E. Scanlan. Scanlan disposed of them, and later Worthington renewed some of the certificates.

In Mr. Ogden's room were found deeds to valuable property in Chicago and to farm lands in a dozen states of the middle west but not a scrap of information as to the disposition of the property which is valued at from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000.

MEDIATORS DISAGREE ON TWO VITAL POINTS

DIFFERENCES ARE SO SERIOUS THAT THEY IMPERIL CONFERENCES

Envoys Insist That Provisional President Shall Be Neutral and Americans Are Determined That Method of Transition Shall Not Be Through Appointment of Foreign Minister By Huerta.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 10.—Differences of opinion so serious that they imperil the continuance of the conferences here have developed between the American delegates and the mediation plenipotentiaries. On two vital points there is flat disagreement. First, the mediators representing presumably the viewpoint of the Mexican delegates are insisting that the provisional president of Mexico shall be a neutral who shall not have been an active partisan in the constitutionalist cause. The American delegates have emphatically stated that unless the choice falls upon a man of distinct constitutionalist sympathies who would command their confidence, there can be no hope of constitutionalist acceptance of any peace program adopted here.

Secondly the United States government is determined that the method of transition from the present regime to the new government shall not be through the appointment by General Huerta as minister of foreign affairs of the plan agreed upon for provisional president. Permit him to exercise the constitutional function of naming his successor, according to the American viewpoint, will be equivalent to recognition of the Huerta government.

The mediators were wholly occupied today with a discussion of these points among themselves. They did not confer with either the American or Mexican delegates. The latter let it be known that they considered the method of succession a technically, but would not definitely say whether they would yield their position. They would not, however, accept a constitutionalist partisan, they say, especially no active worker in that movement.

Carranza's Answer Again Delayed.

El Paso, June 10.—General Carranza's answer to the pending proposal of the A. B. C. mediators again was delayed today. Although the telegraph trouble did not greatly hinder communication between Washington and Saltillo by way of the port, the general appeared to be unprepared to make his reply. It was said that the constitutional representative at Washington had been requested to ask for details of the Niagara Falls conference.

Constitutionalist agents here expressed the opinion that the revolutionary leader would not alter in any respect his repeated refusal to submit to any interference in Mexico's internal difficulties or agree to an armistice.

ROBURS HOLD ELECTION AND INITIATE MEMBERS

Four Young Men of the Senior Class of Illinois College Daily Initiated Into Secret Organization.

The members of the Robur society of Illinois college held their breakfast Wednesday morning, followed by election of officers. In the evening the four young men of the graduating class were daily initiated into the secrets of the order, the ceremony ending at 2 o'clock. Not a little fun was furnished the citizens of the town by the work. Robur Russell was placed in the pagoda in Central park with a lighted candle in his hand. Henry Stolar was in a tree in Lockwood place; Gaylen Dugger was perched on top of one of the pillars of the college entrance. Durrell Hatfield was placed in a tree on the Academy lawn. When asked questions, the only reply they could give was, "Here I am, a little acorn under my leafy bower." Russell and Hatfield later in the evening were made to put on several musical and oratorical stunts for the Academy girls.

The election of officers follows: Rex Silva—W. T. Robinson. Principals—Carl E. Robinson. Custos Follum—Warren Case. Quaestor Glandium—W. G. Goebel.

BEECHER LEAGUE IS NAME OF NEW ILLINOIS COLLEGE ORGANIZATION

Kiebbat, Composed of the Alumni of 1910-12, Changes Title After Admitting 1913—First Annual Banquet at Colonial Inn.

The Beecher league is the name of the newest arrival among the alumni organizations of Illinois college. The classes of '10, '11 and '12 had already selected the name "Kiebbat," a German term signifying a three leaved clover, but on account of a recent decision to admit the class of 1913, a new denomination became necessary. The first annual banquet and reunion of the league was held Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at Colonial Inn.

After full attention to a most excellent menu, the company came to order and Prof. J. G. Ames was introduced as toastmaster by the Kiebbat president, B. B. Watson. An election was held, as a result of which John M. Butler was selected president and DeWitt Sierkin, secretary and treasurer. The toasts were informal and took the nature largely of personal reminiscence. A feature of the evening was the reading of the roll of all who had registered of the four classes. For those not present, answer was made by those of their friends who could tell of their occupation and whereabouts.

DRESS REFORM COMES BEFORE CLUB WOMEN

IS BROUGHT UP AFTER SUFFRAGE SCORES ITS FIRST VICTORY

Led by Illinois Women Suffragists Win Right of Discussion on Floor of Main Convention—California Woman Makes Plea for Sane Dress.

CHICAGO, June 10.—After suffrage had scored its first victory dress reform in its relation to morals came before the biennial of the general federation of women's club at its opening session here today.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, of Pasadena, Cal., in a plea for sane dress declared:

"We have 400,000 women favoring our plan for dress reform and we will ask the convention to endorse it.

"Some of the styles are distressing and extreme and it is those we would like to change. We would like to see women wear dresses that are large enough for them to step in without inconvenience. "There are any number of women who are ready to dress in a sane manner if the manufacturers will allow them to. They can dress beautifully, appropriately and decently and still be in good style.

"The shop girl is the one who makes the fashion for the society women who go to a shop and ask for the 'very latest.' There is nothing for the girl at the shop to do but to bring out the latest. That is why we wish to have the manufacturers join with us in the reform."

To Discuss Suffrage on Floor

Led by Illinois women, the suffragists won the right of discussion on the floor of the main convention before the council of the federation. While no discussion was taken, the sentiment of a majority of the delegates was so strongly expressed that the executive board and other officers cannot but accept the advice offered. This will give the suffragists an opportunity to bring their battle for indorsement to the floor of the convention for the first time. The women of the federation, 10,000 strong, threw themselves into the convention activity with all the ardor of seasoned politicians. Party flags were everywhere and "stand-patters" of the organization were lined up against the suffragists but lost their first clash in the throwing open of the right to discussion from the floor.

Mrs. Burdette in her discussion of dress spoke to an expert and appreciative audience. "With forbidden knowledge," said the speaker, "came self-consciousness, with self-consciousness came the sense of shame and the protective garment and thus did the transgressions of our first parents cover all future generations with a blanket mortgage of clothes which we are paying off with heavy interest.

Whether clothes were first worn as an ornamental covering or for protection matters little, for we seem even to this day to consider the first of prime importance. No matter if the neck be exposed nearly to the waist line and the ankles half way to the knees, if only the style be allowed health and suggestiveness are lost sight of in the craze to be in fashion.

"Miss Grace Hutchins, costume designer of Columbia University says the morals of a woman are read in her gowns and that slovenly dress show mental traits; that the woman who is addicted to extreme styles is an extremist in everything else. But she adds she does not believe that every woman who wears immoral clothes is necessarily immoral. She rather believes that women are thoughtless and that a large percent of them recklessly and relentlessly follow prevailing fashions without knowing why."

Women Are Clothes Mad.

The speaker, herself clad in unostentatious white asserted that American women are clothes mad and that no where else is seen the same elaborate over-dressing save among the decadent women abroad. The speaker gave especial emphasis to her next statement:

"The following of such dictation cause foolish women to eat their hearts out with longing they cannot afford to gratify

FOURTEEN GRADUATE FROM ILLINOIS COLLEGE

EIGHTY-FIFTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT CLOSING SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Address by One of World's Foremost Botanists, Prof. John M. Coulter of Chicago—One Candidate Made Master of Arts and Four Awarded Honorary Degrees.

The eighty-fifth annual commencement of Illinois college, held Wednesday morning in the college grove in the presence of a large number of students, friends and visiting alumni, marked the close of one of the most successful years through which it has been the good fortune of the college within recent times to pass. As brought forth by President J. H. Kammekamp in his annual statement, the 1913-14 term has been characterized by increased attendance and quickened interest in all college departments by a large measure of success in all student undertakings and by a great revival of interest among the alumni. The commencement address was delivered by John M. Coulter, Ph. D., professor of botany in the University of Chicago, and reckoned among the leading authorities in this branch of biological science.

The class of 1914 is composed of nine young women and four young men who have just completed the prescribed four year course in the college and one member of the class of 1879, George S. Montgomery of Edmonton, Canada, who was compelled to leave Illinois with a few months' work not completed, and was given the degree of Bachelor of Arts Wednesday morning. Those who received the Bachelor of Science degree were:

William Durrell Hatfield, Robbins Russell, Henry Clay Stottlar. Upon the following were conferred the Bachelor of Arts degree: Annie Louise Bellatti, Mary Eckstein Case, Clara Louise Doocy, Gaylen Chase Dugger, Edith Therese Engvall, Martha Gold Haydn, Maude L. Johnson, Mary Florence Rice, Elizabeth May Struck, Lillian Dale Wyatt, George S. Montgomery, Ex. '79. The following were awarded diplomas in music: Sallie Harton, Louise Huddleston, Hazel Belle Long, Alice Phillips.

The Rev. Arthur Frederick Ewert of Havana was awarded the degree of Master of Arts for work completed during the past scholastic year in the department of philosophy. Rev. Mr. Ewert was graduated from the college in the class of 1894 and later received an S. B. T. from Boston Theological seminary.

The Honorary Degrees. Honorary degrees were awarded Wednesday morning as follows: Master of Science—Charles Alvin Rowe, A. B. '89.

Doctor of Divinity—Charles Foster Weeden, A. B. Amherst '81. Doctor of Law—Edward Bull Clapp, A. B.; A. M. Illinois, Ph. D. Yale '88.

John Merle Coulter, A. B.; A. M. Ph. D. Hanover; Ph. D. Indiana. Mr. Rowe of the class of '89 has done notable work in scientific agriculture and has been most successful in his experiments for promoting the fertility of the soils. He resides on a farm northwest of Jacksonville. Rev. Mr. Weeden, who received his Doctor of Divinity degree, has been a successful Congregational pastor at Lynn and at Dorchester, Mass. He was a close friend of the late John E. Bradley, a former president of Illinois college. Prof. Clapp received his degree in absentia, his duties not permitting him to attend. Prof. John Merle Coulter has long been a man of prominence in scientific circles and has been an honor to the faculties of Hanover and Wabash colleges and Indiana and Chicago universities.

The Order of Exercises. The procession formed at the college gymnasium at 10 o'clock and marched to the platform erected in the grove. It included the graduating class, the classes of '74 and '89, the class of '64 of the Jacksonville Female academy, other alumni of the college, the board of trustees, the faculty and the president and guests of honor. The Rev. Charles E. Weeden offered the invocation. First on the program were the student speakers, Miss Annie Bellatti speaking on "The Conservation of Coal" and Robbins Russell with the subject, "The Salvation of the World." Prof. Coulter followed with the address of the day, "The New Equipment." "Is the world growing better or worse?" he asked, and continued with a discussion of the spirit of the times, the new Zeitgeist which "is not so much a revolution in our beliefs and creeds as a revolution in the motive for living and working."

Hite Bros. orchestra furnished music from time to time during the morning. The selections included the "Marche Pontificale," two numbers from "The Firefly," and as a finale "Gardes du Corps." After the conferring of degrees, the prizes and honors were announced and the president gave his annual statement. At the close of the morning exercises the annual meeting of the alumni was held in Sturtevant hall. The annual alumni luncheon was held at 1 o'clock in the gymnasium.

The answer to the question as to whether or not the world is growing better depends upon one's standard of judging, said Dr. Coulter in beginning his address. "If the standard is material equipment, the machinery of civilization as it may be called, the world is certainly growing better. If the standard is knowledge of the facts and possibilities of nature, there is only one answer to the question. If the standard involves such moral qualities as honesty, purity, kindness, reverence, the answer will be determined largely by individual experience and temperament."

"It cannot be said that the moral standard has advanced far enough to have determined the spirit of the age. Each age has been dominated by some controlling motive, and this motive has determined the definition of that most elusive word, 'success.' At different times and in different countries the spirit of the age, the 'Zeitgeist,' as the Germans call it, has been now military, now ecclesiastical, now artistic, now commercial. Therefore, the highest success has meant at various times a great soldier, a great ecclesiastical, a great artist, a great financier."

"So far as the United States of today is concerned, our Zeitgeist is reputed to be a financial one, and our greatest individual success financial power. The universal appeal is that it pays. It pays to be honest and temperate and pure and religious, and we offer the holy things for sale."

"Whatever may have been our deserved reputation as a people in the past, a new Zeitgeist is rapidly coming into its own. This new dominating spirit is social rather than financial and success is to be measured by service rather than by income."

"The problem for the young person, therefore, is to discover the preparation necessary to secure an effective place in the new generation that is awaiting him. Shall he be only a reminder of outgrown ideas? Or shall he be an integral part of his age?"

The Spirit of the Age.

Dr. Coulter continued by enumerating the respects in which the young man or woman must be especially trained to meet the spirit of the new age. The fundamental equipment is personal character. The new motive for personal character discards it as a goal and regards it as an equipment. The motive for the upright life is the ambition for efficient service. After personal character there may be mentioned the qualification of clear thinking. "It is astonishing to discover how few people know how to recognize facts, how to weigh them, how to use them in a conclusion."

"A third equipment may be called the human interest. It is really the enthusiasm for the spirit of the times, the new Zeitgeist, the spirit which is not content with sympathy but demands justice, which enables a man to be at the same time both indignant and just."

This combination of personal character, clear thinking and human interest is the demand of the new Zeitgeist, the equipment that is to mean success according to the new standard. This does not mean new activities, but it means a new spirit in the old activities. Every profession and business is to become not an end in itself, mere pay job by which to earn an income. This must ever be an essential feature of it, but it is to be also a vantage ground from which to influence a group, large or small. This makes every profession and business a center of the new propaganda, which is to be proclaimed by activities rather than by words."

NICHOLS PARK CLUB HOLDS REGULAR SHOOT

The Nichols Park Gun club held a regular shoot Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the extreme hot weather there were not so many shooters present as usual, but those who attended were there to powder the blue rocks.

After the point event the shoot for the Stevens Club trophy took place. Mr. Vickery, who won the trophy at the last shoot, was kept very busy defending his title to it. Mr. Obermeyer then entered on the scene and gave Vickery a strong race for the trophy, but was finally defeated by Vickery, who still holds the trophy and may be seen at Gay's Hardware Store.

The score follows: Vickery, 155 out of 180. Swales, 118 out of 140. Port. Corrington, 113 out of 145. J. B. Corrington, 148 out of 185. Meany, 91 out of 120. Magill, 43 out of 55. Zahn, 121 out of 140. Clint Corrington, 29 out of 45. Grandjean, 51 out of 60. Obermeyer, 87 out of 95. Greenleaf, 53 out of 60.

INSPECTED LIGHT PLANT AND WIDENHAM AND DAUB WELLS

Party of Citizens Interested in Extensive Improvements City Is Making.

Since the electric pump operated from the city plant has been in use at the Widenham and Daub wells there have been a good many visits from citizens. Wednesday afternoon a party first inspected the light plant improvements and then went in the automobiles of William Newman, H. J. Rodgers and E. E. Crabtree to the wells to see how the new apparatus works and to take a look at the flow of water from the wells.

At the light plant Mr. Knollenberg ushered the visitors around and explained something of the work which has been done and of that which is in progress but incomplete. At the Widenham-Daub wells station Mr. Brennan explained fully as to how the new pump operates and the advantages it has over the old equipment. The visitors were very much impressed with what they saw and expressed an opinion that the city council has acted well and advantageously in making the expenditures both at the municipal plant and the pumping station.

There will doubtless be a great many other visitors at both plants in coming days and the city officials state that they hope that there will be many such visits in order that the people as a whole may come into a clearer understanding of what has been done and of the changes and improvements yet to be made.

The party that went to the wells yesterday included in addition to the automobile owners and city commissioners mentioned, Frank J. Waddell, Dr. E. F. Baker, Dr. J. C. Widenham, Dr. Edward Bowe, W. J. Brady, C. L. Mathis and W. B. Norris. The last mentioned, Mr. Norris is one of the new proprietors of the Pacific hotel and he was especially interested in visiting the plant from the fact that prior to engaging in the hotel business he had 15 years experience in engineering and is therefore quite well posted on this line. Moreover the greater part of his experience was connected with hydraulics.

How I Produced 12 Pounds of Beef From One Bushel of Corn.

I bought 44 cattle through Milton Marshall & Co., St. Louis, of Henry Wright, they averaged 961 pounds, March 19, 1914 in St. Louis. I put them in dry lots March 27th, fed them all they would clean up in 30 minutes, crushed corn, cob and all then cooked in the 50 bushel size Wood's Grain Softener.

I put them on grass May 25th, they averaged 1200 lbs. when put on grass. While in dry lot I gave each steer 5 lbs. clover hay. After they ate their grain, I kept out straw before them all the time, but they would not eat over one bale of straw per day. I fed at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., at regular hours.

I measured the grain fed with a No. 8 scoop, feeding 50 scoops at each feed or 100 scoops per day, all they would clean up. I put in 20 bushels ground cob corn and all into a 50 bushel vat. This will fill it making 50 bushels feed, which makes 4 feeds, all they will clean up. I drew 50 gallons of syrup off and added 50 gallons of water, then added 1 1/2 bushels of ground oats and shorts, with which I added 80 pigs that are doing well.

I will feed the cattle about 30 days longer and would be glad to have any one interested come and see them.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE THAT MR. WOOLSTON WILL SOON RETIRE

Resignation as Superintendent of School for the Blind To Take Effect July 1st—Post Offered to H. C. Montgomery.

Announcement was made from the office of Governor Dunne in Springfield Wednesday that R. W. Woolston had resigned as superintendent of the state school for the Blind here, effective July 1st, and that the post had been tendered to H. C. Montgomery. Asked about the matter last night Mr. Woolston stated that he had not been advised officially to this effect from Springfield but he intimated that his resignation is in the governor's hands. Mr. Montgomery continues his residence on the subject and in reply to all inquiries says that he does not think it proper to make any statement or comment upon the matter until he has information direct from the governor as to any action taken or contemplated. The salary of the position is $2,100 and living expenses.

Mr. Woolston has been superintendent of the school for the Blind for the past three years and his record at the institution has been such as to entitle him to commendation. The efficiency of the educational departments has been well maintained and the management of the business affairs of the institution has been satisfactory. Mr. Woolston had seven years experience in teaching the blind before he became superintendent and for a year of that time held the position of assistant superintendent. He was honored a year ago by election to the first vice-president of the National Association of Educators of the Blind.

Coupled with the statement which came from the office of the governor Wednesday was mention of the fact that Mr. Montgomery has held the office of county superintendent of schools for a number of years and that his recommendations for the position have been of the strongest kind. Mr. Montgomery has held his present position for several terms and is very popular with the teaching force of the county as well as with patrons of the schools and his record in office has given general satisfaction.

Although Mr. Montgomery has as yet been unwilling to make any comment about his rumored appointment it is assumed that the matter would not have progressed thus far unless he had signified his willingness to accept. Should he take the superintendency beginning July 1st, it will be the duty of the Morgan county commissioners to appoint some one to serve until an election is held in November. Already candidates as his successor have been talked about. Among Democrats are Charles Boston, now deputy county clerk, but for years a school teacher and Herbert H. Vasconcellos, who has been for several years assistant in Mr. Montgomery's office. Among Republicans, J. H. Dial of Murrayville has been mentioned. Mr. Dial has for years been in charge of the Murrayville schools and has a deep interest in educational matters generally.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR LATE DR. J. J. SHEPPARD

Many Gathered at New York High School of Commerce to Pay Tribute to Dead Educator.

The memorial service held recently in the High School of Commerce in New York City in honor of Dr. James J. Sheppard, who was buried recently in Diamond Grove cemetery, was a notable occasion. In this latter class was Hon. D. F. Malone, collector of the port of New York. One who was present at the services said that the tributes were beautiful indeed and without effusiveness or undue adulation the speakers making it clear how much of love and affection they had for the deceased and how great his work had been.

The program as carried out on that day was as follows:

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently—does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently.

MATRIMONIAL

Davison-Mackey.

At the Church of Our Savior Wednesday morning at eight o'clock Rev. Father Formaz officiating, Frank Davison and Miss Anna Mackey were united in marriage attended by Paul Davison, brother of the groom, and Miss Kathryn Mackey, sister of the bride. At the residence of the bride's parents 320 Brown street, a wedding breakfast of four elegant courses was served to the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

The bride was tastefully arrayed in a costume of white crepe de chene and carried a bouquet of beautiful bride's roses while the bridesmaid wore a dress of lemon colored crepe de chene and carried yellow roses. The residence of the bride's parents was handsomely decorated for the occasion, the general colors predominating being white and yellow.

The groom is a boiler maker and one of the force at the C. P. & St. L. shops where he has a host of friends as well as about the city. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davison, live in Havana. The bride is one of the popular and highly esteemed young ladies of the city. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mackey, residing on Brown street, and for eight years past has been a valued clerk in the grocery of Geo. T. Douglas, who will greatly miss her where she has been so popular with the many customers of that establishment. It was the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Davison to take the train for points northward and anticipating that a lot of friends had gathered at the Chicago & Alton station at one p. m. to see them off in true style, but by some means the young pair eluded their would-be tormentors and went over to North street where an automobile was in waiting for them. There they managed to be seen by the people at the station and bidding them good-bye, drove to Springfield where they were to take the train for points north for a bridal tour and on their return they will begin housekeeping here.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Davison, Sr., and children of Havana; Mr. and Mrs. John Davison, Jr., of St. Louis, and Mrs. A. W. Baird, of Bluffs.

Yaple-Conover.

I. S. Yaple and Miss Florence Conover were married last Friday in San Diego, Calif. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Conover and recently graduated from the Martha Washington institute at Washington. Mr. Yaple went west on a vacation. They will return to Illinois in July.

Shackel-Patillo.

The marriage of Miss Rena Marion Shackel and Mr. Howard B. Patillo, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shackel, 320 North 21st street, Rev. W. A. Boyd officiating. The bride was becomingly dressed in white and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. Little Frances Plunkett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Plunkett, acted as ring bearer, and was the only attendant. After the ceremony refreshments were served. The bride has been a teacher in the public schools of Cass county for a number of years and is well and favorably known in the vicinity of Ashland, where the family formerly resided. Mr. Patillo is in business in the village of Philadelphia, in which place the newly wedded pair expect shortly to take up their residence. Mr. and Mrs. Patillo went to Springfield on the evening Wabash train and will take a short wedding trip before returning home. Among the guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shackel, Nokomis; W. A. Patillo and children, Maud, Bernice and Edward, Dorsey Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Philadelphia; Mrs. Betty Irwin, Murrayville; Miss Dickerson, Rochester; Miss Ray, Virginia.

Homer Glazebrook and Miss Myrtle Hanline were married at noon Wednesday by Rev. Alden J. Green, pastor of the M. P. church of Bluffs. The ceremony took place at 125 South West street in the newly furnished home which the bride and groom are to occupy. The bride wore a becoming gown of white rice crepe trimmed in shadow lace and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The interesting ceremony was witnessed by a very few friends and relatives including: Herchel Glazebrook, a brother of the groom; Miss Alice Hanline, a sister of the bride; Miss Nellie Smith, and Mrs. Charles Hale and son Vernon of Bluffs. Following the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served and in every ways the occasion was an auspicious one.

The bride came from Griggsville to Jacksonville several years ago and during her residence in Jacksonville has firmly established herself in the good opinion of a large number of friends. Mr. Glazebrook has been for some time employed at Jacksonville State Hospital and is now connected with the farm department of the institution. As before suggested Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook will live at 125 South West street and their new home has been comfortably and attractively furnished.

BASEBALL NOTES.

It is said the Federal league has offered Umpire Rigler of the National league $6,000 a year for three years to join their circuit.

Guy Cooper and Walter Tolson, two young pitchers from the Virginia league, have been signed by the Boston American league club.

Mike Balenti, ex-Brown and member of the Chattanooga Southern league team, is out of the game for the season because of a broken leg.

Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics has signed "Dad" Moulton, a Boston high school pitcher. Connie seldom overlooks a promising schoolboy player.

Umpire "Silk" O'Loughlin has designed a new mask with ear muffs attached for his own use. "Silk" has grown tired of so much loose chatter on the ball field, hence the ear muffs.

In Carl Ray the Winston-Salem team of the North Carolina league has a pitcher who looks to be headed for fast company. Ray has won ten straight games this season and is still going.

Baseball history for young ball tossers: Sam Crawford, Detroit's star clouter and leading batsman in the American league, will be 34 years old next August and is playing his fifteenth consecutive season in major league company. Clean living is the answer.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES.

Many of the roads in the county have been rendered undesirable for machines owing to the manner in which they were worked. It was supposed that it would have rain long before this and it was the intention to smooth down the loose dirt which the big scrapers landed in the middle of the highway but it has remained dry and much of that loose dirt has been ground to dust and makes traveling decidedly unpleasant.

WILSON ATTENDS CEREMONY.

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—With President Wilson as the central figure in the ceremonies, a monument to the North Carolina soldiers of the confederacy was unveiled today on the state capital grounds in this city. The occasion was the first in history that a president of the United States has come below the Mason and Dixon line to participate in a celebration of confederate sentiments. In addition to President Wilson the participants in the ceremonies included Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Governor Craig of North Carolina, and many prominent representatives of the United Confederate Veterans and the Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy.

The monument, the work of Augustus Lukeman, was admired by everyone who saw it. It is a gift to the state from the late Colonel Ashley Horne of Clayton, in memory of his mother, who sent six sons to Lee's army, three of whom were killed.

The central figure of the memorial is a statue depicting a mother of the confederacy seated, with a Bible in her lap, while kneeling at her side is a boy with a sword in his hand, to whom she is relating its history. Determination is written on both faces, but the countenance of the mother also bears traces of sorrow.

HONOR MEMORY OF BACON.

London, June 10.—The memory of Roger Bacon, the eminent English scholar, who is generally regarded as the first man of science in the modern sense of the word, was honored at Oxford today on the occasion of the 700th anniversary of his birth. The leading feature of the celebration was the unveiling of a statue of Bacon in the university museum. Sir Archibald Geikie officiated at the ceremonies and the chancellor, Lord Curzon, received the statue in behalf of the university.

Wild Oats.

By WALT MASON.

You're sowing wild oats, William Henry Fitzjames, you're sowing wild oats, you're sowing wild oats.

Others, the dissolute games; when you should be sleeping you're still on the jump, a painting the village clear down to the dump; and ancient tradition looks foolishly kind on chaps like yourself who are going it blind; it says, "Let them frolic like lunatic goats, for youths must be youths, and must sow their wild oats." But merry carousers who caper and prance must pay for the fiddler when done is the dance. Alas for the oats that you carelessly sow! You find they are thistles when started to grow, and though you may live for a cycle, my friend, they'll prick you and sting you right up to the end. I sowed fifty bushels of oats that were wild, and while I was sowing I recklessly silted; I laughed at the future and lifted gay vesting, and now I am old I am harvesting prunes. With aches in my body and grief in my soul, the doctors and druggists despoiling my roll, the wearisome knowledge my consciously totes, that all of my troubles are due to wild oats. Be wise in the morning of life, oh, be wise! And sidestep the gait of the father of lies; for wasting the moments and sowing wild oats will lead you to chewing the husks with the shotes.

REVIEW OF YEAR AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

PRESIDENT RAMMELKAMP PRESENTS ANNUAL STATEMENT.

Number in College Larger Than in Any Previous Year—Miss Smith and Miss Cole to Return Next Term Renewed Interest Displayed by the Alumni.

At the eighty-fifth commencement of Illinois college, held on the campus Wednesday forenoon, Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp, president of the college, submitted the following summary of the past year's work: Friends of Illinois College:

Another college year has passed into history. It has been a year of substantial progress and we feel profoundly grateful to Him in whose name the college was founded and for whose glory it still exists. One more and for the third successive time, the college has lived within its income; the students in the college have increased so that the number is larger than in any previous year in the history of the institution; the activities of the students have never been more successful, nor their loyalty greater; the scholastic standards have never been higher. It has been a year successful in itself and full of hope for the future.

Board of Trustees. In the midst of our rejoicing, however, there is a note of sorrow and sadness. Since our last commencement, death has claimed two members of the board of trustees—Charles A. Barnes and Julius E. Strawn. Both were alumni of the college. Mr. Strawn, in years of service, was the second ranking member of the board, having served about thirty-eight years. During that time he has shown a warm interest in his alma mater, often giving of his means towards her financial support. Furthermore, for a brief period he served as president of the board and acting president of the college. The lovable character of Judge Barnes and the sad circumstances attending his death touched the heart of the whole community. We join the citizens of Jacksonville, the officers and members of many other organizations in our expressions of sorrow and in tendering our sympathy to his bereaved family. Judge Barnes was a member of the board from 1900 to 1905, and again from 1909 until the time of his death.

We regret to announce the resignation of the Honorable Logan Hay from the board. The pressure of professional and public duties makes it impossible for Senator Hay to give that attention to college affairs, which his high sense of duty teaches him to be the proper obligation of a trustee, and he, therefore, has asked to be relieved of the office. The alumni and friends of the college will be glad to know that his resignation does not mean any diminution of his interest in Illinois college.

College Faculty and Work of Instruction. The members of the faculty have worked during the year with more than the usual devotion to duty and the usual interest in the general welfare of the college. I cannot speak too high praise of the quality of their work and the spirit of harmonious cooperation that has characterized their efforts. The scholastic records made by the students, especially the new students, have been unusually good. Two professors, Miss Cole of the department of modern languages, and Miss Smith of the department of biology, have been absent on leave during the year. The former has been traveling in Europe and studying at the University of Munich; the latter has been pursuing advanced work for the doctor's degree at the University of Chicago. Both professors will resume their duties at the college next fall. Miss Elizabeth Underitz, who took both her bachelor's and master's degrees at Cornell university and taught at the Normal college of New York for one year, has been serving as acting assistant professor of modern languages during the present year. Mr. F. E. Kempton, who is a graduate of Earlham college, and holds a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin, has performed the duties of acting assistant professor of biology in the absence of Miss Smith.

One of the chief problems connected with the work of instruction is that which arises from the increasing size of our classes. Freshman classes in English, mathematics and German have grown so large that it has been found necessary to subdivide them. The same circumstance has necessitated extra assistance in the departments of chemistry and biology. During the year just closing the trustees have made more or less temporary arrangements for this extra work of instruction, but it is hoped that more permanent arrangements may now be made. In part to carry out these plans, Miss Eleanor Capps has been appointed instructor in German and English on full time. She is a graduate of Earlham college, and holds a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin, has performed the duties of acting assistant professor of biology in the absence of Miss Smith.

Reference was made in the annual report of last year to the interest of the conservatory faculty in the establishment of a scholarship in that department for the aid of promising students of slender means. Mr. Marcus Kellerman, a singer of national fame and a personal friend of Director Kritch, generously donated his services for a benefit concert in order to start this scholarship fund. About $250 was realized from this concert. It is to be hoped that this sum will be only the nucleus of a still larger scholarship endowment. An adequate scholarship fund in the conservatory should amount to at least $2,000.

Whipple Academy. The passage of a law providing, in effect, for free tuition in the public high schools has greatly affected the problem of attendance in the preparatory department. It is interesting to note, however, that in spite of this law, the attendance of regular students in that department is not much below the number of last year. Mr. Walter Leslie Harris, the principal appointed a year ago, has conducted the work in a very successful manner and I am glad to report that he will continue in the position next year. We deeply regret to lose the services of Miss Jeannette A. Reed, who has been instructor in Latin and German in of the college to know that in a classification of Presbyterian colleges recently made by the college board of that church, Illinois college was placed among the institutions of highest rank. We cannot too zealously guard the scholastic reputation of our college and everything possible should be done not only to maintain but to increase the efficiency of our work.

I insert the usual statistics showing the preference of students in the selection of their major studies and the registration in the different departments. The latter is the average for the two semesters.

The College Library. I have emphasized in other reports the importance of the College library. The library is intimately connected with the efficiency of practically every department of the college. Through bequests and gifts of both cash and books, the library has made during the last two years some progress. However, it is not a progress commensurate with the needs of the students, and the ideals of the institution. The library already has a few special endowments, but it needs a still larger general endowment. Here is an opportunity for some generous friends who would like to do something of substantial benefit for the college. Among those who have donated cash or books during the year are the following: Prof. Edward Capps, Truman P. Carter, the estate of Samuel Willard, E. P. Kirby, Mrs. Frank Heintz, Ensley Moore, H. W. Hamilton, Dr. O. L. Schmidt, L. W. Milligan and Mrs. John Crosby Brown.

The Harold W. Johnston Memorial. In this connection it is a pleasure to refer to the movement for the establishment of a suitable memorial for the late Harold W. Johnston. Former students and friends of Prof. Johnston, a host of admirers not only from Illinois college, but from Indiana university and many other institutions, have united in this movement. I understand that it is proposed to erect a tablet to his memory at the University of Indiana, and it is proposed to establish here at Illinois a Harold W. Johnston Memorial Library fund for the purchase of classic books. The purchase of classic books, the committee a check for $1,000 as the first contribution towards this endowment. An effort will be made to increase the fund to at least $2,000. In view of Prof. Johnston's devotion to the cause of classical learning and the inspiration to the study of the classics which he gave to so many young people, such a memorial seems most appropriate.

The Conservatory. Music is closing another successful year. We have become accustomed to expect great things from the faculty of the conservatory, and our expectations are always realized. Eight students have been awarded teachers' certificates and four have received diplomas. The appointment of Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson was announced in the report of last year. It only remains to add that the success of her department this first year amply demonstrates the wisdom of the appointment. Nathalia Jensen, who has been serving as assistant in the violin department for the past two years, has resigned her position in order to accept a position on the faculty of music at Galloway college, Arkansas. Miss Hazel Brown, who has been appointed to the vacancy, is a graduate of our own conservatory and has been teaching for several years at Wells college, New York. Upon the recommendation of the board, a new position, an instructorship in sight singing and ear training, has been established. Miss Alice Phillips, who received a diploma at commencement, has been appointed to the position. Furthermore, on account of the increasing work in the vocal department, it has been necessary to create a position of accompanist and studio coach in this department. Miss Marguerite Butler, who received a teacher's certificate, has been appointed to the position.

Students. Reference has already been made to the increase in the number of students in the college. In 1912-13 there was an increase of 36, as compared with the previous year; in the year just closing there is another increase of 33. The enrollment in the college is 131 this year, as compared with 117 in 1896-97, the largest number in any previous year. Of the college enrollment 91 are men and 40 women. The total registration of different students in all departments this year is 379. This registration is about the same as last year, notwithstanding the fact that two courses in the conservatory have been discontinued.

Even more significant than the increase in the number of college students is the fine spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm that has pervaded the student body. We have entered upon a new period of success in student activities and a new outburst of college loyalty has manifested itself on the Hill. We have, perhaps, not yet realized the highest ideals of college loyalty, but it is encouraging to know that we are rapidly moving in the right direction. I referred in the report of last year to the harmony and co-operation that characterized the relations of students and faculty. Those harmonious relations have been even more pronounced during the year just closing. A brief mention of the student activities of the year will doubtless be of interest. In athletics it has been a year of many victories—perhaps the best year in our athletic history. The winning of the state track meet at Peoria, in competition with some fourteen other colleges, brought joy to the hearts of many sons and daughters of "Old Illinois." Our football team of last fall was one of the best the college has ever turned out. The other teams have also acquitted themselves in a creditable manner. I cannot speak in too high praise of Mr. Harmon, our director of athletics. I am thinking not so much of the victories which the teams have won as of the spirit of true sportsmanship which he has instilled into the men. Clean sport is more important than victories. It is, however, doubly gratifying when one can have both.

The interest in debate is even stronger than last year. The college is now a member of a triangular debating league consisting of Monmouth, Augustana and Illinois. According to the arrangements of this league, each institution sends out two teams, one of which debates the affirmative and the other the negative side of a question. Both Illinois teams won their debates. These triangular debates, in addition to the regular joint debate, a freshman joint debate and a freshman debate with Bradley institute, furnish ample opportunities for all students who are interested in debating.

The dramatic activities of the students continue to flourish. The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Professor Ames, gave a very creditable performance of "As You Like It," at the local opera house. Especially noteworthy was the performance of Sophocles' Electra on our campus. This play was given under the auspices of the Classical club of Jacksonville and under the direction of Prof. Tanner of our faculty. Students of the Illinois Woman's College and of the local high school, as well as of our own institution, united in this production. Briefer and less pretentious plays by the girls of Academy Hall and by the students of the German Department, under the direction of Prof. Underitz, may also be mentioned. The Elizabethan May Day, a biennial event on the college calendar, was given this spring under the general direction of Miss Eleanor Capps. Practically the whole student body participated in this event, which proved to be the best that has yet been given. Most of the proceeds have been set aside for the Athletic Association. Nor would I overlook the work of our Glee Club. Under the direction of Mrs. Wilson, of the Conservatory faculty, the club had made substantial progress during the year.

The Alumni. The alumni continue to take a warm interest in the college. Indeed I do not believe alumni and former students have ever taken a more intelligent and lively interest in the affairs of the college. We extend a cordial welcome to several classes that are holding special reunions—the class of '74, which is celebrating its fortieth anniversary, the class of '89, which is observing its twenty-fifth anniversary, the class of '99, which is celebrating its fifteenth anniversary, and the tri-class league which is holding its biennial reunion. On behalf of the college, I also welcome with more than ordinary Whipple academy for the last three years. Miss Reed will spend next year at the University of Wisconsin pursuing post graduate study in her chosen field. She leaves us with the best wishes of a large circle of students and friends. The classes taught by Miss Reed will be taken by Miss Capps and Miss Reichench, whose appointments have already been mentioned. Twelve students were graduated from the Academy this year.

Academy Hall. Academy Hall has had the most successful year since the merger of Illinois college and the Jacksonville Female Academy. Most of the available rooms were taken and the life at the hall was unusually happy during the year. We are especially thankful that Academy Hall, for the most part, escaped the epidemic of diseases that afflicted the community during the winter and early spring. I wish heartily to endorse the rule adopted by the trustees last year requiring girls from a distance to reside at Academy hall unless they plan to reside with relatives or work for their board in private families. The enforcement of the rule may occasionally work a slight hardship or cause the loss of a student, but of its general wisdom there can be no doubt.

As already announced, Mrs. Jeanette S. Garrison, the head of Academy Hall, has resigned her position on account of ill health. We shall greatly miss Mrs. Garrison at Academy hall. She has given very efficient service in her administration of this department, as the financial results amply show. Furthermore, she has shown a sympathetic interest in the welfare of the girls and her dignified bearing and strong Christian character have proved a most helpful influence. The trustees have appointed to succeed Mrs. Garrison, Miss Mary V. Price. Miss Price is already well known in Jacksonville. She received her education at Monticello seminary and the Jacksonville Female academy. Her successful experience in the management of the household at Monticello and at the Chicago Commons augurs well for her success as head of Academy hall. It is with a warm cordiality that we welcome her to our administrative staff.

HAS FINAL PRACTICE.
Hempstead, N. Y., June 10.—Before another large gathering of Polo enthusiasts the American international team played its final practice game on the Phlips Field at Westbury today. The cup defenders played in perfect form both as to team work and riding, although their game was not a fast one.

Rene Lamontagne, J. Waterbury,
D. Milburn and Lawrence Waterbury playing as named lined up against what was probably the strongest team yet faced, defeating them 11 to 3.

WITH THE BOXERS.
Jack Dillon and Battling Levinsky got $3440 a piece out of their recent bout in Indianapolis.

New York promoters are figuring on a match between Charley White and Willie Beecher, the New York lightweight.

Jess Willard, the erstwhile heavyweight boxer, says he is willing to tackle Gunboat Smith, Frank Moran or Jack Johnson.

Garry Herrmann is in the nine hole on Pitcher Schneider of the Northwestern league. Since he has learned that Schneider signed a federal league contract and had accepted $500 advance money, he sees visions of an injunction and wants to drop the jumping Dutchman.

Manager Callahan of the White Sox is trying to trade Harry Lord for a second baseman. As Lord insists he has retired from the game, big league managers are a little shy
in dealing with the Sox boss.

The National league seems to have it on the American league in the matter of sluggers, having nearly twice as many hitters in the .300 class.

SMOKY JOE WOOD HAS GREATEST WRIST IN THE BUSINESS.

Joe Wood of the Boston Red Sox possesses one of the strongest fore-great development enables him to get remarkable speed into his snap motion

"Smoky Joe." He underwent an opis just rounding into shape now. Car-

Chicago, June 10.—Joe Benz out-pitched Walter Johnson today, holding Washington to one scratch hit and not walking a single batter.
Chicago shutout the visitors 2 to 0.
This was Chicago's fifth straight victory and Washington's fourth consecutive defeat. The lone hit of the visitors was made by Ainsmith in the ninth inning. The Washington catcher knocked a swift grounder toward Weaver but Afook stepped in front of him and then juggled the ball momentarily. The official scorer ruled that it was too hot for Alcock to handle and it went for a single, depriving Benz of a no-hit game. The score:

RIGGING ACCIDENTS RETIRE DEFIANCE IN TRIAL WITH RIVALS
SANDY HOOK, June 10.—Rigging accidents retired the Defiance in her first effort to show her racing abilities today and left her rival cup class sloops, Resolute and Vanitie a thirty mile duel over a windward and leeward course off Sandy Hook.
Resolute won by seven minutes and twenty nine seconds, corrected time.

The Resolute covered the 15 miles to windward and return in three hours, sixteen minutes and forty one seconds, the fastest time ever made over such an America's cup course.
The regatta committee announced that the Vanitie allowed Resolute three minutes and 1-3 seconds. This was the first time that the allowance has been openly stated.

The Resolute is expected to be in condition to race tomorrow.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

Johnny Coulon has been tossed into the scrap heap. His decisive defeat at the hands of Kid Williams was no surprise to those who followed the destinies of the Logan Square scraper since the death of his father, Emil Coulon, a few years ago.
When Johnny was deprived of the care and advice of his good pater he became negligent as regards health and the regular habits of life the elder Coulon at all times insisted his son should follow. Johnny did not become a "souse" nor doredict in the wake of the bright lights along the great "white ways," but he indulged a life of ease and one of moderate high living. His hours of rest became somewhat irregular and his physical condition was not kept up to the standard his kindly old French father so jealously insisted upon. All of this had a tendency to invest Johnny with the "millionaire's nightmare," inflammatory gout, and try and try as he would the pesky acid has steadfastly refused to quit its clogging in the Coulon blood. Reports from his training camp previous to Tuesday's battle were bunk, and those on the inside well knew that Johnny was not the same Cou-lon of whom the late Emil Coulon was so proud. Has-been Jeffries and others in the Chicago boys' camp held Williams too cheaply. They depended upon the former champion's courage and ring generalship to carry him over the stormy path of twenty rounds to at least earn a draw. The wise men, however, knew different when in the betting market they first installed Williams a 10 to 9 favorite, then 10 to 6, and wound up at 2 to 1, and in some instances better odds were offered. The new champion is worthy of the bantam crown, one he will wear but a short time because of steadily increasing weight. It required some harsh and rough treatment to get him down for Tuesday's battle without sapping his vitality. Williams all of his life has been accustomed to the hardest kind of knocks, so that a game of fisticuffs in the roped arena is merely a picnic or a moonlight excursion for him. First a newsboy around Baltimore, he gathered all that was coming to him among the purveyors of "Extras." Searching for something more strenuous, he entered the sub-cellar of one of the Oriole newspapers and became a stereotype's apprentice. Here he stewed and sweated over a sixteen metal pot, first pouring, then trimming, chiseling and routing plates for the big presses. While doing all of this he found time to take on some of the amateurs around Baltimore, with all of whom he had easy sailing.
Sticking close to his trade until he became as hard as steel and physically sound, he annexed a manager and started for the bantam goal. If his manager does not allow him to drift as did Joe Gans; if he keeps him to the clear in the middle of the channel, avoiding the shoals and rocks, straight ahead of them buried in the pugilist hill is a king's ransom which will be theirs for the mere asking.

The grand old man of baseball on Tuesday landed his 3,000th baschet after seventeen years of professional baseball. The season is yet young, and Honus Wagner, barring accidents, is in a fair way to top in his seventeen years the 3,047 hits it took Captain Anson twenty-two years to gather. Cobb, Schulte, Daubert, Johnson and others stars have been proclaimed players of the most value to their teams when the Chambers gas wagons were to be peddled, and Wagner has continued to be overlooked by the judges. Why he is overlooked is one of the mysteries baseball fans are unable to solve. If a more valuable man to a team ever lived (Mike Kelly excepted) than Wagner the baseball book fails to record it.

Louisiana will continue to worry along without winter racing, the legislature at Baton Rouge on Tuesday killing the Reinhardt bill by a vote of 55 to 50. New Orleans sent a big delegation to the capital to lobby for the bill, which provided for a racing commission of three members and permitted betting by the pari-mutuel system. Since the game was crabbied in the Pelican state the merchants and others in the Crescent City has been deprived of hundreds of thousands of dollars formerly left there each winter by visitors from the north. Bets on puts and calls are still permitted on the cotton exchange and are labeled business propositions; but the person taking a flyer on a bangtail's chances of reaching the wire is a gambler who must be squelched; lop-sided reasoning that sort of law.

Charley Carr's baseball correspondence school is not reaping the millions it was supposed it would,
and the big fellow has been forced to get back into the spangles to help keep the wolf from the family pantry. He has signed to play first base for the Indianapolis Federals. Carr in his long career has had but one successful season in baseball—1908, when he landed the Indians champions of the American association.
Things broke badly for him after that, and two years ago he managed Tica in the New York State league.
From there he went to Kansas City and managed the Blues until last fall, when he departed between two suns, declaring he was through with the game for all time.

Another pair of "stars" were exposed in the line-up of Federal clubs on Tuesday. Rube Peters (morning glory) who was shunted by the Sox to the Pacific coast, then all over the alkali circuit into Idaho and from there wished upon Buck Rourke of Omaha, pitched one inning for Brooklyn against the Chifeds. Brooklyn also grabbed Bill Case, who eight years ago was a semi-pro on Captain Anson's City league team in Chicago.

Ford Cars

And through that medium brings happiness to the home.

What can you say about the FORD
It never QUITs. It brings you close to town, to the PICNIC, to the CHAUTAUQUA, to your RELATIONS; IT brings the DOCTOR close to his patients, the MERCHANT close to his PATRONS, the REAL-ESTATE MAN close to the property he has to sell. In fact it is the BEST CAR THAT YOU CAN BUY no matter what you pay; and think of the PRICE—

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind. I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all pleasure and happiness in my home."—Mrs. JESSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

REVIEW OF YEAR AT

cordiality, the members of the class of 1864 of the Jacksonville Female Academy, who are celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their graduation. Two of the members of that class, who are present this morning, are mothers of honored alumni of the college. One is the daughter of a member of our first faculty. The Jacksonville Female Academy are more than legal ties; they are of the kind that are thicker than water.

Of particular interest in connection with the subject of class reunions is the establishment of the "Reunion Trophy". At the alumni luncheon last June, a suggestion was made that it might be appropriate and of great advantage to the alumni of the college, if a reunion trophy cup were offered to stimulate an interest in class reunions. Acting on the suggestion, the Chicago Society of Illinois has generously donated a handsome silver cup to be known as the "Reunion Trophy". The class, of whose living members the largest percentage return for a class reunion at commencement will win the cup and will have the privilege of having its numeral engraved on the cup. In the words of the circular sent out by the Chicago Society, "It is the hope of the donors of the cup that the annual rivalry to win it will arouse new interest and enthusiasm among the classes that have gone out, will increase the attendance at class reunions, and will veritably cause commencement week to be turned over to a large extent, as it should be to the old grads and past students."

If the plan succeeds as well at Illinois as it has at Amherst, where the scheme originated, all of this will actually come about, and commencement on the hill will take on new life, and the campus during commencement season will be the brightest spot on earth for the sons of "Old Illinois."

The alumni fund is now established on a permanent basis. In addition to $695 paid into the current expense fund of the college and $23 paid into the endowment funds last year, the directors have already established an endowment fund of $1000. This is doubtless only the nucleus of a much larger alumni endowment fund. I understand that the number of subscribers to the fund has increased by about sixty during the current year. The total annual subscriptions now amount to about $1740. Each year, however, many single and specially designated subscriptions are made. The total subscriptions this year will amount to more than $2000. We are assured that the appropriation to the current expenses of the college from the Alumni fund will be at least as large as last year and it may be larger. The college is greatly indebted to the directors of the alumni fund, and especially to the chairman of the board, Prof. Edward Capps, for the time and effort which they have given to this movement. It is one of the really great achievements of the recent years.

Several alumni have passed away during the year. Reference has already been made to the death of Charles A. Barnes and Julius E. Strawn. The death of Mr. Eliphaz W. Blachford, '45, last January, removed one of the most prominent of our early alumni. He was for several years a member of the board of trustees of the college and was a generous donor to its funds. He was a man of great nobility of character and beloved by all who knew him and interested in every movement for the welfare of his fellow men. Among the deaths reported to the president's office are the following:

A. L. Harrington, '49.
C. L. Dunham, '51.
J. W. Miller, '58.
H. M. Post, '61.
G. T. Goode, ex-'67.
J. M. Holmes, '67.
G. D. Blackburn, ex-'70.
A. C. Brown, '70.
F. A. McDonald, '71.
J. W. Simpson, ex-'74.
E. P. Morton, '90.
W. L. Ransdell, '95.
F. R. Wheeler, '95.
Nellie Martin, '13.

The college, as usual, has received several donations during the year. The gifts to the library have already been noted. Through the efforts of Mr. Andrew Russell, $255 has been contributed towards improvements in the gymnasium. $100 has been subscribed by an anonymous friend with directions that it be devoted to some worthy college purpose. Several subscriptions have been made to a guarantee fund for instructor's salaries. I am also informed that several friends have subscribed to a fund for the purchase of a Balaopticon. Other subscriptions for special purposes have been made through the alumni fund and will in due time be reported by the directors. The history department is indebted to Mrs. Thomas Worthington for the donation of several samples of old state currency, appropriately framed. If the friends who have given generously of their time and effort to the college were mentioned, the list of donors would be greatly extended.

Miscellaneous.
The year has been one of unusual activity in repairs and improvements to the college plant. Although I shall not attempt to enumerate the details in this report, I cannot refrain from expressing our special appreciation of the attractive campus walk, the commodious clubhouse porch, the hard wood floor in the chapel, and the bright electric lights in the gymnasium. I hope the summer may witness several other substantial improvements to the college plant.

The Campus Improvement Committee, under the efficient direction of Mrs. T. J. Pitner, has continued its work of beautifying the campus by the planting of shrubbery. Already the results of the work of this committee are becoming manifest. I cannot let the occasion of an annual commencement pass without again calling the attention of generous friends to the pressing need of a new library building and a new commons. An increasing body of college students only emphasizes the importance of these needs.

The thanks of all are due to the Buildings and Grounds Committee, acting under the chairmanship of Dr. C. E. Black, for its work in rearranging the insurance on the college property. This, I should also record as one of the important achievements of the year.

Many alumni, as well as members of the present student body, will regret to learn that Mrs. L. A. Shumaker has resigned her position as matron of the college club. She has filled this position very successfully for several years. Mrs. Shumaker and her family will remove to California.

Finances.

That the financial results of the year are encouraging has already been noted. When due allowance is made for a division of the profits in certain departments of the institution, the net balance of the year will amount to a couple of hundred dollars. That is not a large margin. It is still necessary for the trustees to practice the strictest economy in the administration of the college. However, when one recalls the large annual deficits of a few years ago, it is evident that the college is now on a sound financial basis. The Finance Committee of the board of trustees, our funds, so that with conservative investment, the college is realizing over five per cent on its endowment funds. This committee and the treasurer of the college are giving a large amount of valuable time to the administration of the endowment fund. Since appreciation is the only remuneration which they receive, let us give it to them generously.

The custom of publishing a full financial statement, as a part of the president's report, inaugurated last year, will continue to be followed. I need not, therefore, enter into any further details now, since the complete financial statement will appear in the printed report.

The greatest need of the college is still that of a larger endowment for salaries. I cannot reiterate this need often enough. Several efforts were made during the year to start a campaign for funds, but the inability of certain friends to respond to our appeal, and the general conditions of the business world, made the accomplishment of our purpose impossible. However, let us hope that the effort has not been postponed for a more favorable opportunity. The five hundred thousand dollars which the college imperatively needs must be forthcoming in the near future.

Conclusion.

From the results of the last few years, it seems reasonable to believe that Illinois college has entered upon an era of steady progress and development.

Our prosperity, however, will bring new problems. In fact it has already brought them. We must not forget the fundamental fact in higher education that it costs more to educate a college student than he contributes in tuition and fees. A greater number of students means larger endowment and a larger equipment. Already we are facing the necessity of additional instructors and of enlarging our laboratory facilities. It is a different call from that which went forth a few years ago when the existence of the college seemed at stake, but it is just as urgent. It should be answered more promptly and enthusiastically. That Illinois college has a place in the future of higher education in Illinois cannot be doubted. We have heard much of "Old Illinois." The time has come when alumni, trustees and friends must realize that the era of a New Illinois is dawning.

AT THE PLAYGROUND.

The first ward playground is now in full blast and is being enjoyed by many children and some older ones. Mr. Scott estimates a hundred a day as the average, though sometimes more than that number are present. The seats in the shade are popular with the grownups while the shoot the chutes is paragonized by the little folks in good numbers. A series of five playground ball games has been arranged and the youngsters are getting much fun out of them. The apparatus in general is in order and more is being added as funds permit.

A well is being dug so that the kindly neighbors who have been patient in the past will not be so much troubled by the children after a drink of water. At twelve feet the men encountered a great deal of water and had hard work to keep it down while they proceeded with the well.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY.

A. P. Vasconcellos of east State street has good reason to recall the 10th of June and this year it is the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Guntown, Mississippi. Sherman was investing Atlanta and wanted Forrest's cavalry to be kept away from his rear and to that end sent out Gen. Sturgis with a force of men to engage the dashing rebel cavalryman and keep him away from the army about Atlanta and though Forrest overcame the union forces the object was accomplished and July fourth Gen. A. J. Smith was sent with a union force which defeated Forrest and drove him back at Cupola, Mississippi June 13-15th, and to make Forrest think they were still going to occupy the territory and look after him they began working on a railroad which had been destroyed and later on the force was sent to Missouri to get after the rebel Price and then to Nashville to help Thomas whip Hood December 15 and 16th. When Forrest was driven from Mississippi he proceeded northward and in the engagements about Nashville Col. Mat Starr received the wound which proved fatal.

In his service Mr. Vasconcellos saw many tremendous hardships and it seems a wonder today that he is here when all is taken into consideration. It is his sturdy constitution and excellent habits which enabled him to stand such hardships as befell the brave men who saved the union and they can never be too highly honored.

WHAT IS MAN THAT THOU SHOULDST MAGNIFY HIM?

(By S. H. McCausland.)

A plastic lump of potter's clay;
An image fashioned by His hand;
A cloud whose shadow may not stay
To cool the thirsty, heated land.

A mote upon the shifting air;
An atom formed beneath the sun;
A part of the terrestrial sphere;
An heir of the celestial one.

A bubble on life's troubled crest,
Reeling now, then lifted high;
A mimic star on ocean's breast;
A meteor hurrying 'cross the sky.

A creature of hate and of love;
A subject of pleasure and pain;
An angel of grace from above;
A demon who laughs at his slain.

A mystery of matter and of mind,
Form, spirit and intellect combined,
Dupe of despair and of hope supernal
Subject of death and of life eternal.

A restless spirit wandering o'er Earth's space, and then is known no more.
For He whose wisdom brought man
hither,
In wisdom hides his whence and whither.

Beyond the scope of finite thought,
Beyond the bounds of time and space;
The mind of Deity has wrought,
And man must occupy his place.

THE "DAY OF REST"

AND HUMAN EFFICIENCY.

The refreshing influence of the weekly "day of rest" on a person subjected to the strenuous routine of a busy life is a feature which he himself can duly appreciate in the effects on his "feelings" and "spirits." The efficiency of the working man, the length of the working day, the intersection of pauses for rest in the schedule of labor for persons of different ages and stations in life—questions of this sort are constantly arising for solution on a scientific basis. Not only in the field of manual labor, but also in the case of the school child, the office boy, the factory girl, the banker and the merchant, efficiency is the keynote of the times. Fatigue is the enemy of efficiency, and to detect and compensate for or overcome it, is the duty of those concerned with the promotion of human welfare.

In view of this says The Journal of the American Medical Association it is of more than passing interest to know that Dr. Martin and some of his associates in the laboratory of physiology at the Harvard medical school, have been making a careful study of the whole question of fatigue and efficiency from a physiological standpoint. A long series of experiments have been made on the first year medical students who were following a regular routine of school work during six days of each week. The routine was interrupted weekly by the Sunday recess, an interval occupied variously by the students, but in no case precisely the manner of the week days. The daily observations made on these persons several weeks show that at the beginning of the week the nerve reaction tends to be high, that from then until the end of the week there is a fairly continuous decline and that following the interruption of the routine by the intervention of Sunday, it returns to the original high point.

The decline is interpreted as a cumulative result of general fatigue incident to trouble. What is even more significant, however, is the added fact that a pronounced break in the routine—such as the "day of rest" occasions—may bring about a return of sensitiveness to a high point or, in other words, it restores the nervous tone. Studies continued in this direction should lead to some useful conclusions regarding the maximum of work, with respect to both its duration and type, that should determine the conditions under which the organism of man may be maintained without depletion.

WORLD CONFERENCE OF Y.W.C.A.

SULPHUR IS THE ONLY THING FOR ITCHING ECZEMA

Use Like Cold Cream to Subdue Irritation and Clear Skin.

In the treatment of the various forms of disfiguring, itching and burning Eczema such as Acne, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, there is nothing known that can take the place of bold-sulphur cream.

It effects such prompt relief, even in the aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties. Bold-sulphur is not only parasiticidal, but antipruritic and antiseptic, therefore invaluable in overcoming irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance it instantly stops the agonizing itching; subdues the irritation and heals the inflamed, raw skin right up and it is often years later before any Eczema eruption again appears.

Those troubled should obtain from any good pharmacist an ounce of bold-sulphur cream and apply it directly upon the abrasion like an ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome.—adv.

A very delightful social event was that which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chrisman, seven miles west of Jacksonville Tuesday night. Following a custom established some years ago Mr. Chrisman invited the Knights of Hospitaller Commandery and the members of their family circles to enjoy ice cream, strawberries and other good things on the Chrisman lawn. The menu was not limited to ice cream and strawberries but included a lot of other good things as well. The Merritt band had been secured to furnish music for the evening and their splendid program added not a little to the pleasure of the event. The company included the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bonson, Henry J. Rodgers and daughter, Miss Faye Rodgers, accompanied by Miss Stella Rodgers of Waverly, Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Dyer and daughter of Lynnville, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. FRANKLIN CITIZENS DECIDE TO OIL STREETS

Have Ordered Tank of Oil of 8200 Gallons.—Part of Square, Two Side Streets, and Main Street Included in Ground to Be Covered.

After several sessions of the Business Men's club of Franklin, the members decided to oil the streets of the town. A committee has been at work for several days circulating the petitions.

A medium sized tank of oil, containing 8200 gallons, has been ordered from Peoria and is expected next week. Two-thirds of a gallon will cover a yard of surface. It has been agreed that the main street will be oiled, two side streets and part of the square.

Some of the citizens were somewhat doubtful as to the results of oiling the streets, but wherever the experiment has been tried, it has proved so satisfactory that all opposition has been removed. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the only way to solve the dust problem in the smaller towns is by the oil route.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE TRUSTEES

HOLD BUSY ANNUAL MEETING

Establish Library Memorial Fund For Harold W. Johnston and Authorize Changes in Plant and Improvements—Sen. Hay Signs.

The board of trustees of Illinois college spent a busy day Wednesday holding in all three sessions and transacting a large amount of routine business. The trustees met first in the morning before the graduation exercises, held a second session at noon, and a third from 4 until 7 o'clock in the evening. The president of the college and other officers of the board and the various standing committees gave their regular reports. These reports showed the college to be in a very prosperous and encouraging condition.

The trustees acted favorably upon a request by Phi Alpha Literary society, Philologist, the Y. M. C. A. and Gamma Delta for a re-arrangement of the rooms in Beecher hall. According to this action, Phi Alpha takes the Philologist room and Philologist is provided for in the North hall of the dormitory. Gamma Delta, the young women's society, takes the Y. M. C. A. room in Beecher, the young men reserving the right to make use of the hall for their larger meetings.

Harry J. Dunbaugh of Chicago was elected alumni trustee to succeed himself. E. W. Blatchford of Chicago, son of the late E. W. Blatchford, '45, was elected a member of the board. Mr. Blatchford is an alumnus of Amherst and a prominent business man of Chicago. The board also accepted with great regret the resignation of Senator Logan Hay.

A resolution was passed establishing the Marcus Killerman scholarship in the Conservatory of Music.

A check for $1,000 was received from the committee in charge of the Harold W. Johnston Memorial fund. The board passed a resolution establishing the Harold W. Johnston Library fund, the income of which is to be for the purchase of classical books. The committee is expecting to raise an additional $1,000, which will be incorporated in the fund.

Appropriate resolutions relating to the death of Judge Charles A. Barnes and E. W. Blatchford, who was a member of the board many years ago, were passed by the trustees. Resolutions on the death of Julius E. Strawn were passed at a previous meeting.

The board instructed the building and grounds committee to undertake several repairs to the campus and college plant.

The trustees present from out of the city were J. E. Downing, head of the New England bank of Kansas City; Harry J. Dunbaugh of Chicago and John J. Bergen of Virginia.

Walter Woodman is down from Peoria for a sort visit with friends and home folks. His name is Walter Woodman and his position is ground keeper for the Distillers. If ever a local park appeared well groomed the local diamond did yesterday, while his artistic work with the white wash attracted a lot of favorable criticism."

JOHN L. JOHNSON HAS BECOME A BENEDICT

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN WEDS MISS CAROLINE S. GREEN.

Ceremony Took Place Wednesday Afternoon at Collinsville—Bride a Teacher at Local Institution Several Years Ago—Will Visit Northern Resorts on Wedding Trip.

(Special to The Journal.)
Collinsville, Ill., June 10.—Miss Caroline S. Green of Collinsville, Ill., became the bride today of John L. Johnson of Jacksonville, Ill., at the beautiful home of the bride's mother on the Vandalia road. The wedding was a quiet affair, with guests limited to members of the two families.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Louis L. Lumahl, wife of an extensive coal operator of Madison county. Charles H. Green of St. Louis served his new brother-in-law as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry Henick.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white embroidery net and the house was profusely decorated with June roses. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Wisconsin summer resorts. The bride belongs to one of the most socially prominent families of Madison county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Jacksonville were here for the wedding.

The news conveyed in the telegram above from Collinsville will come as a distinct surprise to the very numerous friends of Mr. Johnson here in this, his home city. He left Jacksonville a day or two since supposedly for a vacation trip to Michigan, and so well was his secret guarded that none but members of his family and his business associates knew of his real intent. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson were present at the wedding and no information was given out in Jacksonville about the wedding until late Wednesday afternoon, when John S. Hackett, acting on authority previously given, broke the secret.

Mrs. Johnson, whose family home has for years been at Collinsville, a few miles from St. Louis, is pleasantly remembered by a number of Jacksonville people, who became acquainted with her when she was a resident here eight or nine years ago, as a member of the faculty of Whipple academy. She is a young woman of broad education and decidedly musical tastes.

Mr. Johnson is the senior member of the firm of Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie, has been prominent in the business and social life of Jacksonville for a number of years as practically his entire life has been spent here. Aside from his busy business life he has found time for a great deal of musical work and no Jacksonville musician has been more generous in giving his services. He is active also in Masonry and withal is one of Jacksonville's first citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are to spend a number of weeks at northern resorts and will then return to Jacksonville. Where they will live has not been announced, but it is understood Mr. Johnson will build on the property adjoining the home of his brother, C. A. Johnson, Lockwood place.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

Owing to the fact that gasoline mixtures will stand considerable thinning during the summer months and that any number of cars are now troubled with overheating due to a great extent to improper lubrication, adjustment of ignition devices, defective radiation, slipping clutches, as well as numerous minor faults, we have arranged for the service of an efficiency engineer who will be at our Sales-and-Service Dept. on June 12th and 13th. His services will be free to the automobile public between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on these dates; the average amount of time necessary to make these adjustments is from ten to fifteen minutes. The general automobile public is invited to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Remember these services are absolutely free.
